

Russian Brokered Cease Fire Begins in Aleppo

A CEASEFIRE BROKERED BY RUSSIA between government backed troops fighting for their nation and jihadist rebels in rebel held areas of Aleppo was put into effect today (Nov. 4). The Russians are facilitating the release of innocent civilians and have provided several corridors by which they can exit the war torn area safely before action against the rebels resumes.