Fyodor Dostoevsky's Brothers Karamazov

Highly acclaimed as one of the supreme literary achievements in human history!

"The Brothers Karamazov", is a passionate spiritual drama set in the context of 19th century Orthodox Russia faced with the dilemma of modernization. Dostoevsky presents an entire panoply of human emotion – despair, intrigue, doubt, joy, sensuality, guilt and elation all in some way related to existential acquiescence, or to the moral, psychological and spiritual imbroglios, intrigues, and illuminations that are integral to the human quest for meaning.

Gateway to Catholic Social Teaching

IT IS CALLED GATEWAY because it is the intellectual entrance way to Catholic Social Doctrine. The Church’s Social Teaching rests upon everything taught in this course, especially the mystery of the human person made to the Image of God, which is the correct starting point for proper study and mastery of the Social Question.

Gateway is really three courses rolled into one: Psychology – A study of the human person, esp the Trinitarian Mystery found in the powers and operations of body and soul that make a human person to the image of God. Ethics – study of the virtues necessary for human growth through actualization of the spiritual powers and operations discovered in Psychology. Politics – study of the common good for human beings living in community including the functions and powers of government; a study of the different types of government and which is best (it can be demonstrated), and a study of the relationships among: Eternal Law, Divine Law, Natural Law and Human Law from a uniquely Catholic perspective using both Scripture and Philosophy – Faith and Reason.

Gateway to Politics and Christian Civilization: Ethics, the Study of Human Potential

Course Description (Two Week Video Class): ETHICS IS THE STUDY OF human development or of human happiness. It is a philosophical study of what human beings need to develop their uniquely human potentials, which we were able to discover in the study of psychology. As a philosophical study it is limited to what can be known about this topic by reason. An additional faith perspective may be acquired by studying Aquinas' works listed in the Readings Section.

Christian Civilization:

Integral Methodology

Course Description (Two Week Video Class): THE SOCIAL SCIENCES have long been dominated by an empirical descriptive methodology limited to observable phenomena. This has been both a strength and a weakness. Since all the social sciences are also human sciences, they should better reflect man whom they endeavor to know and to serve. This is becoming more and more apparent as avant-garde social scientists disillusioned by the limits of a strictly empirical approach increasingly include a spiritual dimension in their research.

Gateway to Politics and Christian Civilization: Politics and Jewish Law

Course Description (Two Week Video Class): SINCE POLITICS IS THE STUDY of the common good or of the good life for men and women living in community, it rests upon the previous study of psychology and ethics.

Gateway to Politics and Christian Civilization: Psychology (What is Man)

Course Description (Two Week Video Class): THE STUDY OF PSYCHOLOGY is the fundamental and correct starting point for the study of politics and the social question. If we do not know what a human being is, we will not be able to develop or critique the social structures we make to serve his human development; society will work against man if it cannot properly define who he is.
